Phone call with Simon Tregurtha of Thrifty Oil regarding comments on case closure for Shell station at 3420 San Pablo Avenue in Oakland. He apologized for misspelling my name. He briefly cited site history with stopping of remediation and groundwater monitoring. Ethanol was detected in groundwater on upgradient side of site; believed to be from an off-site source not related to Thrifty tank system. I indicated that I would be taking over the Thrifty site to review case for closure.
