Responsible Party Identification Background

Alameda County Environmental Health (ACEH) names a "Responsible Party," as defined under 23 C.C.R Sec. 2720. Section 2720 defines a responsible party 4 ways. An RP can be:

1. "Any person who owns or operates an underground storage tank used for the storage of any hazardous substance."
2. "In the case of any underground storage tank no longer in use, any person who owned or operated the underground storage tank immediately before the discontinuation of its use."
3. "Any owner of property where an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance from an underground storage tank has occurred."
4. "Any person who had or has control over an underground storage tank at the time of or following an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance."

ACEH has named the responsible parties for this site as detailed below.

Responsible Party Identification

Existence of Unauthorized Release

A 1987 report entitled Subsurface Investigation Report by Groundwater Technology, Inc. (GTI) indicated that during the 1986 underground storage tank (UST) removal of a 300 gallon waste oil UST and a 500 gallon gasoline UST, a soil sample taken at 10 feet in the common tank pit contained 2,509 parts per million (ppm) TPHG, the pit was excavated to 14 feet, resampled, and found to contain 1,441 ppm TPHG. Additionally, TPH ranging from 5,018 to 21,022 micrograms per liter (ug/L) and benzene ranging from 386 to 1,428 ug/L were detected in groundwater samples obtained from three new monitoring wells installed by GTI. This data provides evidence that an unauthorized release has occurred at the site.

Responsible Party Identification

Good Chevrolet Corporation owned the property from 1970 until 2011. Good Chevrolet Corporation is a responsible party for the site because they owned and operated the underground storage tanks (USTs) used for storage of hazardous substances (gasoline and waste oil) (Definition 1), owned and operated the USTs immediately before discontinuation of use due to the discovery of a leak (Definition 2), owned the property where an unauthorized release occurred (Definition 3), and had control of the USTs at the time of and following the unauthorized release of the hazardous substance (Definition 4).

In 2011, the property was purchased by Foley Street Investments LLC. Foley Street Investments LLC is a Responsible Party because they are the current owners of a property where an unauthorized release occurred (Definition 3).
