Good Afternoon Keith,

Per our conversation, we are having some difficulties with the lab and lots of key people are on vacation. We request a reporting extension for November 2nd to ensure we get all the information reported like we need. Also, it looks like everyone is available the week after Thanksgiving (November 26-30) if we can set a meeting for sometime that week. Preferably the middle of the week so the client isn't traveling on a weekend. Please let me know if this works for you and Dylan. Safe travels and best of luck to your wife on her competition.

Thanks
Jennifer
