Thank you, Jerry. I will keep you apprised of the wells that will have the metal analyzes dropped and those that will keep the analyzes.

Jim,

For wells where metals concentrations have returned to ambient or remained at ambient concentrations, dropping metals analysis is fine. For wells where the sensitive metals remain elevated due to the chem ox, metals analysis should be continued to demonstrate the return to ambient conditions.

Hi Jerry!

I am requesting your permission to drop from M&S analyzes all the metals. This would leave TPHg, BTEX, 8 oxy's, nitrates, sulfates, DO, Specific conductivity, ORP, TDS, pH and temp.

Jim
