There is nothing in the file about any tank other than the waste oil tank removed in 95.

Sorry.

Jesse,

As per my voicemail message on Friday I was hoping that you could look up the tank files for the Eastmont Auto Goodyear located at 7250 Bancroft Avenue, Oakland. We have an open case but have been unable to find information on the UST that was removed. There was one 500-gallon waste-oil tank that we do know about for a closed site, but I'm trying to find out information on other possible USTs at this site, perhaps one removed May 8, 1990. (Not the 5 at the former Penney's/Firestone site. I've attached a location map showing the Former Eastmont Auto. Thanks for any information you can provide.
