Subject: current status of local case number RO0002868

Jerry and cheri,

I am currently completing a Phase I ESA of a property in the in the area of the above facility. Currentlky I am using the Geotracker website to gain information (this is how I got your names) on the current regulatory status of the above facility; however, it appears that the last status date is 2005. I attached the facility information. Would either one of you be able to tell what is the current regulatory status of the facility?

Thank you,

Crystal L. May
