Subject: RE: Drill date for Livermore Pipeline Leak

Chris,

Thanks for the update. I will not be coming out to the site on April 2.

Jerry

We are tentatively set for starting drilling at Livermore Airport on Monday April 2, 2007 for the Geoprobes around the pipeline and USTs at the airport. If the schedule changes I will call or email. I guess we'd be drilling by about 8:30 once on-site. If you have any questions, please call or email.
