

4/25/2017 Phone Log- RO2981 Red Hanger Kleaners, 6235-6239 College Ave., Oakland

Duration: Approximately 40 minutes (total)

Had a voice mail from Martin Hohensee, identifying himself as the property owner of 321-323 63rd St. He received our request for access letter and did not know what is happening. As I was listening to the VM, I received a call from Mr. Hohensee. He indicated this was occurring at an inopportune time as the units at his property are currently for sale. He wanted to know the path forward.

Conversation with Jonathon Redding. I informed him that I had passed on the CCV phone number, and relayed the response to our letter and the state of urgency conveyed by Mr. Hohensee. Mr. Redding indicated he had not yet seen the letters recently sent out by our agency.

Received another VM from Mr. Hohensee. He wanted me to call him as he needs to determine and speak with whoever makes the decision on what happens next.

I received a call from Mr. Hohensee. I informed I will review with our program manager. Mr. Hohensee said he has contacts do to whatever work is necessary and is willing to pay for the work.
