Hello Paul,

Please modify the date(s) so that it accurately reflects that the public has 30 days to comment and respond as proposed in your e-mail. Also, please send me a copy of the modified fact sheet for our records.

Sincerely,

Hi Paresh,

We are preparing to release the Public Notification that was provided in your letter dated 3/12/10. The letter requested that the Public Notification be released by March 15, 2010. While reviewing the Public Notification, I noticed that in the second column, three lines above the map in the lower right corner, the Public Notification references comments received by April 14, 2010. I am assuming that you would like the response date to be modified if the Public Notification is released in the next week.

We have a program called PaperPort that allows us to modify the date on the Fact Sheet pdf. Please let me know if you would like us to modify the comment submittal date to reflect a date that is 30 calendar days after the anticipated release date of the Public Notification. Alternatively, please let me know if you want to provide us a revised copy of the Public Notification with a revised comment submittal date. Thank you!

Best regards,

Paul King
