I have not looked at the site lately but is unlikely that you will need to do any more overexcavation in the street. Your consultants should be helping you along with that judgment to backfill the excavation and remove the trench plates. I don't have this on my schedule as per a specific date yet. I will do my best to get it reviewed within the 60 day timeframe barring any unforeseen requests from my superiors.

Hi Barbara,

I hope your Holidays were joyful.

I know that it has not been 60 days, but I was hoping that you could perhaps give me an idea of when we might get a ruling on this. I only ask because we are paying monthly for trench plates to cover the excavation area (located in the street of our complex) and maybe we need to just make repairs and take our chances that we may have to reopen the street.

I do know that you have allot on your plate and we are not the only ones asking for your assistance.

Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.
