Ken,
Teena will be calling you about the upload to our ftp site. Apparently, we have not received it and she will help you with that.
In answer to your questions below: 1 You need to upload any new data to Geotracker. Since your site is rather old, you probably don't have any new data. But perhaps you would like to upload the 8-page response you submitted.
2: You have not yet claimed your site in Geotracker. They automatically assign a Global ID when the site is opened by my boss. To claim your site follow the following steps:
http://www.swrcb.ca.gov/ust/electronic_submittal/report_rqmts.shtml
Look for the governor's picture, immediately to the right of his picture is a line that has electronic submittal. Click on that link, it is active. Go to where it says Getting Started and open the form called Authorized RP agent authorization form. Open the pdf, Some people have had bad results with trying to open the Word doc. Fill out the form and send it in. If you don't have a consultant just put in None.
3. I will place this in my queue. I am not sure when I will get a chance to review the information that you sent. We normally have a 60 day response period but I have been trying to catch up with my sites since I was pulled away to do other state mandated requirements.
Regards,
Barb Jakub

Hello Barbara,

Today I uploaded documents concerning the work plan request letter I received from your office. Due to an error, yesterday's attempt was unsuccessful. Hopefully today's attempt will be successful. Please check the status of the submission and notify me.

I do need additional clarification:

1. Do I need to upload documents to the GeoTracker Global website as I did to the county's <ftp://alcoftp1.acgov.org> site? Which documents? My GeoTracker Global ID is: T0600102132.
2. The February 22, 2011 letter asks me to "claim my site". Please clarify. Have I already claimed my site in GeoTracker since I have a GeoTracker Global ID?
3. I've written an 8 page letter to your office with compelling information which I hope will be considered in determining future categorization of my site. When will I receive a response?

Sincerely,
