Dear Mr. Scribner:

I would like to introduce myself as the caseworker that is overseeing the subsurface investigation/remediation of the hazardous waste release at the above address. Esselte Corporation (Dymo Industries, Inc.) has been identified as a previous property owner and underground tank operator of the above site by Mr. Frederic D. Schrag, Special Counsel for Nady Systems, Inc., the current property owner.

State Water Resources Control Board, California Environmental Protection Agency regulations define "Responsible Party" for purposes of underground storage tank corrective action requirements as one of the following:

- (1) Any person who owns or operates an underground storage tank used for the storage of any hazardous substance;
- (2) In the case of any underground storage tank no longer in use, any person who owned or operated the underground storage tank immediately before the discontinuation of its use;
- (3) Any owner of property where an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance from an underground storage tank has occurred; and
- (4) Any person who had or has control over an underground storage tank at the time of or following an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance.

In addition, under federal law (42 USC Section 6991(3)(B)), the person who owned a tank which was not used after November 8, 1984 immediately before the discontinuance of its use may be named a responsible party, even though substantial evidence does not exist to show that the leak occurred before discontinuance of use.

This office has been notified that Esselte Corporation (Dymo Industries) owned and operated the underground storage tank immediately before the discontinuation of its use.

Esselte Corporation and Nady Systems, Inc. are considered jointly and severally responsible for site cleanup. The enclosed Notice of Responsibility identifies your role as a responsible party.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (510) 567-6774.

Sincerely,

Larry Seto

RE: 1137-1167 65th Street, Oakland, CA 94608

Dear Mr. Nady:

I would like to introduce myself as the new caseworker for this site. I have reviewed Coit Services, Inc. petition to the State Water Resources Control Board in regards to their determination as a responsible party for the clean up at the above address. Ms. Lori Casias with the State Water Resources Control Board and I discussed at length the site history and ownership of the above address.

At this time, no information has been provided to this office which would suggest an unauthorized release occurred from the underground storage tanks during the time Coit Services, Inc. owned the subject site. Also, it is our understanding that Coit never operated the tanks. For these reasons, we will remove Coit from the responsible party list. However, please be aware if information is provided in the future which indicates a release did occur during Coit's ownership of the site, Coit will be added to the responsible party list.

This office will send Esselte Corporation a Notice of Responsibility pertaining to the subsurface investigation and remediation at the above address. Under federal law (42 USC Section 6991(3)(B)), the person who owned a tank which was not used after November 8, 1984 immediately before the discontinuance of its use may be named a responsible party, even though substantial evidence does not exist to show that the leak occurred before discontinuance of use.

Both you and Esselte Corporation are considered jointly and severally responsible for site cleanup.

In a letter dated April 5, 1999 from Frederic D. Schrag, Esq. to Susan Hugo, it appears that Trans-Western Services Inc. is a potential Responsible Party. Please forward to this office the mailing address and contact person for Trans-Western if it is available.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (510) 567-6774.
