Subject: Fuel Leak Case No. RO0002949, Geotracker Global ID T0619758441

In February, you were going to research the parties involved in the above-referenced fuel leak case in response to query by Jim Kendal, since Bank of the West/United California Bank show no record of any relationship with Markus Supply Ace Hardware or Darbri Corporation. Were you able to locate any information that would shed some light on why United California Bank received notice from your office? Thank you.
