Michelle and Jeff,

I wanted to send a quick note in regards to the Low Threat Closure Policy Review and Request For Closure. ACEH has conducted a preliminary review and it appears that the two sites could close under the policy; however, there appears to be one potential sticking point that we can determine. Because residual free phase has impacted soil and groundwater, and is proposed to be left in place at both of the two sites, as well as the adjacent property to the south, a Long Term Soil and Groundwater Management Plan, and a land use restriction would be required for all three properties, per the LTCP. This may be acceptable to Sybase, but may or may not be acceptable for all three of the property owners. You may want to discuss this with the property owners "on your side of the fence". We will be meeting with the offsite property owner in later August, and will discuss this with them at that time. The site will enter into a closure review process in the post-August 17th environment, as will good number of other sites, so I'm not sure of the timing of future events with respect to closure.

I hope to get a letter out in the nearer future with further details of the review and to request appropriate documents; however, with the pending August 17th LTCP review deadline for all site, there may be a bit of a delay.
