Keith:

Per my voicemail, I just received a copy of your letter dated June 26th for the above referenced site (see attached). Chevron requests an extension to respond to your letter by September 5th, 2016. As I mentioned in my voicemail, I have just received your letter today and need time to review our records to prepare a response. If this extension request is satisfactory, please respond to this email with an approval.

If you have any questions or comments regarding this extension request please don't hesitate to contact me at my information listed below. Thank you.
