Paresh,

ACC previously worked for Kelly Engineer at 4 service stations, Guy's Service in Oakland, one in San Leandro (since closed), one in Hayward, and one in Concord on Pine Street. Starting in 2004, Kelly Engineer stopped paying us for our work and we subsequently sued him in small claims court and won a settlement.

The report dated August 12, 2004 was the last work we did for him at 3820 San Leandro Blvd. I think we were working on a Work Plan to conduct an offsite soil boring investigation at the request of Barney Chan but Kelly Engineer started to not pay for work at the other stations and we never completed the Work Plan. I called Barney at the time and told him we were not doing any more work for Kelly Engineer. At about this time we also stopped all work at the Hayward and Concord Stations.

It took us until 2007 to get paid for the work performed in 2004.

Dave
