Responsible Party Identification Background

Alameda County Environmental Health (ACEH) names a "Responsible Party," as defined under 23 C.C.R Sec. 2720. Section 2720 defines a responsible party 4 ways. An RP can be:

1. "Any person who owns or operates an underground storage tank used for the storage of any hazardous substance."
2. "In the case of any underground storage tank no longer in use, any person who owned or operated the underground storage tank immediately before the discontinuation of its use."
3. "Any owner of property where an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance from an underground storage tank has occurred."
4. "Any person who had or has control over an underground storage tank at the time of or following an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance."

ACEH has named the responsible parties for this site as detailed below.

Responsible Party Identification

Existence of Unauthorized Release

During a piping and dispenser upgrade in June 1997, soil samples collected beneath the dispensers and product line trenches contained up to 12,000 ppm of total petroleum hydrocarbons as diesel (TPHd), 690 ppm of total petroleum hydrocarbons as gasoline (TPHg), and 8.9 ppm of MTBE. Four soil borings (SB-1 through SB-4) were advanced in November 1997 to define the extent of contamination. A grab groundwater sample collected from SB-2 contained 4,900 ppb of TPHd, 470 ppb of TPHg, and 370 ppb of MTBE. An Unauthorized Release Report was filed on July 3, 1997. After a UST failed a tank tightness test in October 2004, the UST was repaired and returned to service. An Unauthorized Release Report was filed on November 11, 2004.

Responsible Party Identification

Shell Oil Products was the business owner, tank owner, and property owner at the time of the unauthorized releases in 1997 and 2004. Shell Oil Products is a responsible party because Shell Oil Products was the owner of property where an unauthorized release occurred (Definition 3) and Shell Oil Products had control of the UST system at the time of or following unauthorized releases (Definition 4).

Hudson Investment Properties LLC purchased the property on or about March 5, 2009. Hudson Investment Properties LLC is a responsible party because they are the current property owner (Definition 3).
