Good Afternoon Jerry:

Just to follow up, last we spoke regarding this site on 2/26, you had given a date of 3/14 (end of this week) for review and discussion. I passed this date to the developer but also made it known that this was a new case in your workload – they are quite anxious and the City is asking about the case status.

If there is anything you need while going through this in the next few days, please contact me. If for some reason, we won't be able to discuss by this Friday please let me know as well.

Thanks much -- Peter
