Your extension until March 28, 2010 is approved. If you need another one due to City of Oakland permit review, please let me know.

Regards,
Barb Jakub

Hi Barbara,

You'll recall we've agreed to install wells at the above referenced site. We applied for an encroachment permit back in June. I called the city this morning and was informed they're still working on the permit.

We have a reporting date of Nov 28, 2009; in view of the fact the permit has been under consideration for 5 months, with no estimated time for finalization, it's obvious we're not going to drill or report by that date.

I propose a new reporting date of March 28, 2010; hopefully the will give the city of Oakland time to process the permit.

Thank your for your attention to this site.

Jim
