FACSIMILE

Pam,

Cambria Environmental Technology, Inc. (Cambria) has prepared this facsimile to confirm our recent telephone conversations regarding the above-referenced Shell station. As Paul Waite of Cambria mentioned in a voice mail message to you yesterday, a potential line failure was indicated during testing at the site. As we discussed this morning, Shell has contracted a construction contractor to investigate the potential leak. You mentioned that Alameda County inspection of the site was not required; however, if soil samples are collected the analytical results should be submitted in a future report.

Cambria will be onsite this morning to observe site conditions. If native soil appears to be impacted and is accessible, samples will be collected.

Please do not hesitate to call me at 510-420-3320 if you have any questions or comments.
