CAMBRIA

ENVIRONMENTAL As you requested during our telephone conversation today, attached is a copy of the revised TECHNOLOGY, INC. Proposed Boring Location map for the site referenced above. The revised map shows the 1144 65TH ST current underground storage tank (UST) location [REDACTED]. However,
 SUITE B due to the proximity of the boring location to the product piping and underground storage tanks,
 OAKLAND, we will relocate this boring to the previous proposed location north of the dispenser island if CA 94608 we encounter any obstructions in the new proposed boring location.
