Per my voice mail messages this email is a request for an extension for the due date for the reports for the subject projects. The field work and analytical testing for both projects are both complete at this time and the reports have been drafted. However additional time is necessary to finalize the text, tables, figures, and appendices. Therefore we are requesting an extension to Friday June 6, 2008 for both reports. If you have any questions or need any more information please do not hesitate to contact me.
