Mr. Till,

Please disregard the subject letter. It has been revised and forwarded to the other parties involved in the cleanup.

Sincerely,

Paresh Khatri

Mr. Khatri

I have left you two voicemails regarding your letter dated June 8, 2017 which I am attaching for your reference. Your letter is incorrectly addressed to the wrong party and related to a property address my clients do not own. The property address referenced in your letter is owned by a different person. My clients the Bouzos have not been named as a responsible party and are the owners of the property located at 6251-6255 College Avenue, Oakland, California and do not own 6235-6239 College Avenue, Vacaville, California (I am assuming you intended this to be Oakland, California). In addition, my clients have informed me that they have never received any prior invoices. At this point, I request that you withdraw the letter and invoice(s) and reissue the letter and invoice(s) to the responsible party conducting the work at and around the property listed on your letter 6235-6239 College Avenue. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me. Thank you.

Subject: Supplemental Remedial Investigation Work Plan

Dear Keith and Dilan:

Attached is the Supplemental Remedial Investigation Work Plan, a day early for review and approval. Our intention is to implement this work plan during the week of July 10, 2017. There are no surprises in this workplan—it is what was discussed earlier this year. We have received and sent Access Agreements to the Gordon and Bouzos attorneys and hope to wrap those Agreements up this week, so that we can remain on schedule to do the necessary remedial investigations prior to making final recommendations for SVE system enhancements which we would like to also install later this year. We would appreciate your prompt review and approval/comments. Thanks. Jonathan
