Responsible Party Identification

Existence of an Unauthorized Release

In December 2013, one single-walled steel 350-gallon underground storage tank (UST) and related product piping containing diesel (or home heating oil) were removed from the front yard of a residential property at 811 Paramount Road, Oakland, CA. The UST was found to be in poor condition with at least one visible hole. Soil discoloration and hydrocarbon odors were observed in the stockpiled overburden soil and soil underlying the UST. Two soil samples were collected at 7 feet below ground surface (bgs) from each end of the UST. Concentrations up to 9,290 milligrams per kilogram (mg/kg) Total Petroleum Hydrocarbons as Diesel (TPH-D), 1.1 mg/kg ethylbenzene, 1.37 mg/kg total xylenes, and 47.3 mg/kg naphthalene were detected. Based on site characterization data an unauthorized release, occurred from the UST system.

Responsible Party Identification

Ilona Frieden and Mark A. Jacobson TRS purchased or acquired the property in August 2005. Ilona Frieden and Mark A. Jacobson TRS are responsible parties for the site because they owned an underground storage tank used for the storage of any hazardous substances (Definition 1); they were the property owner where an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance from an underground storage tank has occurred (Definition 3), and they had control over an underground storage tank at the time of or following an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance (Definition 4).
